

GARBAGE ARCHAEOLOGY DAY

Friday February 19th, 10am-5pm

at the San Juan Historical Museum Resource Center

All welcome. Come learn about Taxonomy and what is washing ashore at Sasquatch Cove (aka Deadman's Bay). SVC Anthropology students are analyzing beach trash collected over the last year, and offering you the chance to come learn about Garbage Archaeology.

For more information contact Dr. Candace Gossen at info@blackcoyotemedicine.org or the Historical Museum at museum_admin@sjmuseum.org
